Recap: Likes and Dislikes: I Like / I Don't Like

REVIEW

Likes and dislikes summary

- Use I like and I don't like with general nouns (e.g., I like coffee).
- Ask questions with Do you like...? and reply with Yes, I do or No, I don't.
- When talking about another person, remember the third-person 's': He / She likes...

How do you say that your classmate enjoys soccer?

Warm-Up Question Chain

Can you answer and pass the question?

Your teacher begins with a personal question: What is your name?

Answer quickly in English, then choose a classmate and ask a new question from Sessions 1-10 (Where are you from? What do you do?).

Tip

Keep the chain moving without pausing in Spanish!

Learning Objectives

Objectives

Interview a classmate in English to gather complete personal background details.

Draft a connected 6–8 sentence script introducing your partner accurately.

Introduce your classmate orally in a small group using appropriate greetings and third-person forms.

Key Vocabulary

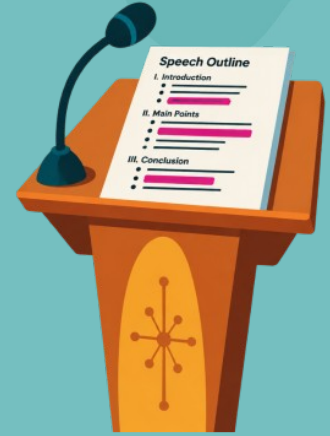

Introduce: To present a person to others.

Interview: To ask questions for personal facts.

Partner: A classmate you work with in a pair.

Script: A written text of words to say aloud.

Model Introduction: Ken

MODEL TEXT

'Good evening. This is my friend. His name is Ken. He is 28 years old. He is from Japan. He is Japanese. He is a teacher. His phone number is 315 456 7821. He likes soccer.'

This complete model integrates 8 core topics taught across Sessions 1 to 10.

Deconstructing the Model

ANALYSIS

1. Greeting & Name

*Good evening. This is my friend.
His name is Ken. (Sessions 1 & 2)*

2. Age & Origin

He is 28 years old. He is from Japan. He is Japanese. (Sessions 4 & 7)

3. Job & Phone

He is a teacher. His phone number is 315 456 7821. (Sessions 3 & 4)

4. Interests & Likes

*He likes soccer. He likes music.
(Session 10: third-person -s)*

Grammar Focus: I vs. He and She

In the Interview (First Person)

Your partner says: I am 24 years old. My job is chef. I like salsa.

In the Introduction (Third Person)

You present them: She is 24. Her name is Camila. She likes salsa.

Common Grammar Traps to Avoid

Watch these three points:

- Age uses TO BE: Say 'He is 28 years old', never 'He has 28 years'.
- Job articles: Always use a / an before professions (He is a teacher, She is an engineer).
- Possessive pronouns: Use His for a male partner and Her for a female partner.

Mistake

Do not forget the final -s on verbs: He likes soccer, not He like.

Interview Stage: The Profile Card

Your Data Gathering Tool

During pair work in breakout rooms, record notes in each section:

- Name & Age: What is your name? How old are you?
- Origin & Job: Where are you from? What do you do?
- Family & Phone: Do you have a brother/sister? What's your phone number?
- Likes: What food or music do you like?

The image shows a tablet with a profile card form. The form is divided into two main sections. The left section features a circular profile picture of a person with dark curly hair, a yellow starburst icon, and a network diagram with a central node and several connecting lines. The right section contains seven rows, each with a colored circular icon, a label, and a text input field. The rows are: Name (pink icon), Age (yellow icon), Country (teal icon), Job (pink icon), Family (yellow icon), Phone Number (teal icon), and Likes (pink icon). The tablet is decorated with pink exclamation marks in the top right corner.

Steps to Write Your Introduction Script

Step 1: Notes

Check your card.

Step 2: Draft

Write 6–8 sentences.

Step 3: Self-Check

Verify verbs and words.

Step 4: Practice

Read aloud clearly.

Writing the 6–8 Sentence Script

Follow this proven sequence: 1. Formal or informal greeting (Good morning / Hello everyone). 2. Introduction line (This is my classmate...). 3. Name & age. 4. Origin & nationality. 5. Profession with a / an. 6. Phone number. 7. Likes & interests. 8. Courteous closing (Thank you!).

Self-Correction Checklist

Verify Your Script

- Verb TO BE: Did you use is (not am or are) for your partner?
- Possessives: Did you use His for a man and Her for a woman?
- Articles: Did you add a / an before their job (e.g., a doctor, an accountant)?
- Capital letters: Are nationalities and countries capitalized (Colombian, Japan)?

Pronunciation: Phone Numbers & Likes

Digit-by-Digit Rhythm

Read phone numbers grouped in pairs or trios with a tiny pause: 3-1-5 [pause] 4-5-6 [pause] 7-8-2-1.

Pronouncing /laɪks/

Ensure the final consonant cluster 'ks' is heard clearly: He likes /laɪks/ coffee. Do not drop the final sound!

Role-Play: 'Meet My Friend'

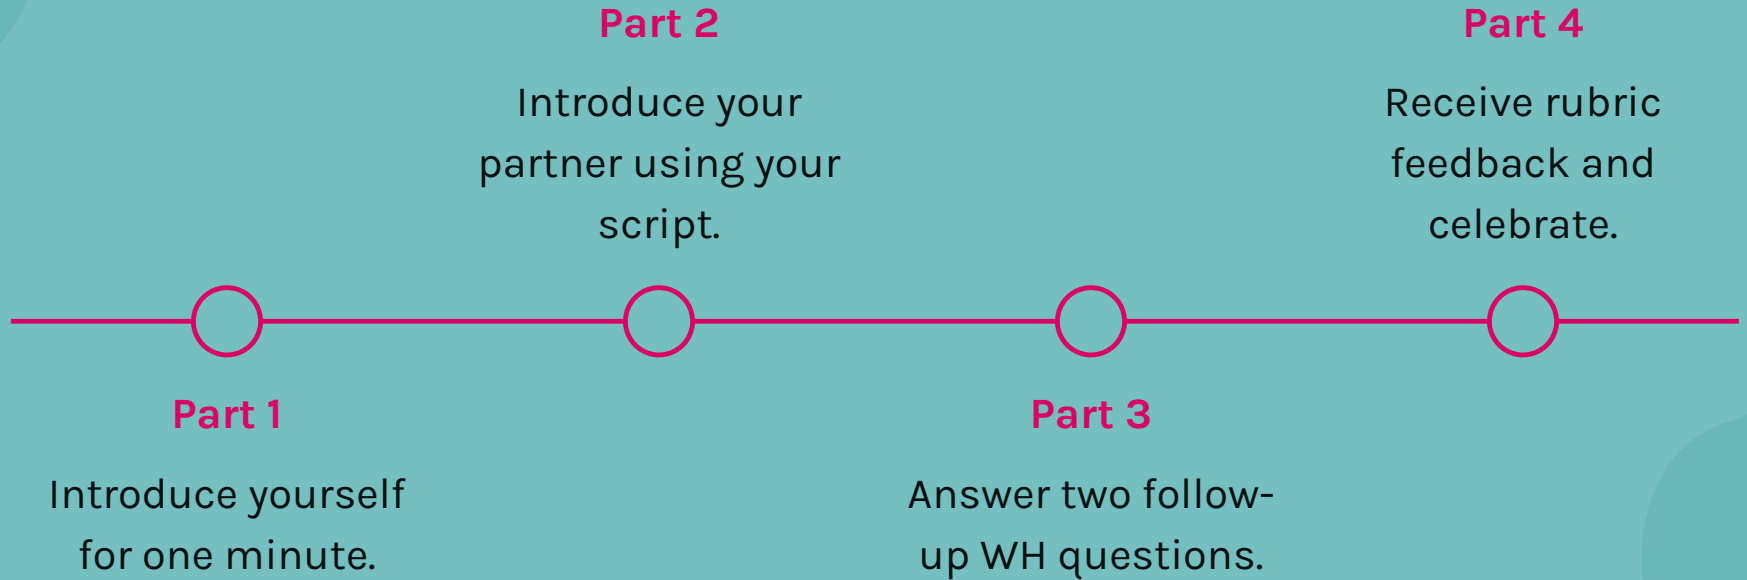

Trio Practice Activity

In groups of three, take turns:

- Student A: Introduce Student B to Student C ('Good evening, Carlos. This is my friend Camila...').
- Student C: Welcome Student B politely ('Nice to meet you, Camila!').
- Rotate until all three have introduced and welcomed a partner.
