

Review + Final Oral Project

Introducing Yourself and Others · Session 12

Recap: Integration Workshop: Introducing Others + Final Project Preparation

QUICK REVIEW

- We practiced interviewing a partner using core WH- questions about personal details.
- We drafted a connected 6-8 sentence script combining name, age, country, job, and likes.
- We reviewed switching pronouns between speaking about ourselves ("I") and others ("he / she").

Question: What are the two essential details you must include when introducing your partner today?

Can You Introduce Your Partner?

Imagine meeting an international client or a colleague tomorrow. You need to present yourself and introduce a teammate in clear English.

Today is your moment to showcase all 11 previous sessions in one confident presentation!

Learning Objectives

Objectives

1 Introduce yourself and a classmate in a 2-minute oral presentation using accurate Pre-A1 structures.

2 Answer two follow-up WH- questions clearly with correct verb forms and pronunciation.

3 Evaluate peer performances and complete a personal "I can..." self-assessment.

Key Vocabulary

Review

Looking back at learned topics to prepare thoroughly.

Project

A planned oral task demonstrating your semester learning.

Presentation

Speaking formally to an audience to share information.

Feedback

Helpful advice on your strengths and areas to improve.

Greetings and Farewells

Formal Openers

Use "Good morning" or "Good evening. It is a pleasure to meet you." Ideal for professional presentations.

Casual Closers

Use "Have a great day!" or "See you later!" when speaking to friends or classmates after an informal chat.

Essential Verb "To Be"

Identity

"I am Carlos." / "She is Sofia." Use am / is to state identity.

Origin

"I am from Colombia. He is Brazilian." Use from + country.

Occupation

"I am a student. He is an engineer." Remember a / an!

Emotion & State

"We are excited today!" / "She is ready." Express condition.

Mastering WH- Questions

In your oral defense, your classmates and teacher will ask two follow-up questions. Review the exact inquiry structure:

- What: "What is your phone number?"
- Where: "Where do you live?" or "Where is she from?"
- How: "How old is your brother?"

Remember

Listen for the WH- word to know what information to answer!

Grammar Check: To Be

Choose the sentence that correctly introduces a classmate:

1. She are from Colombia and she is a architect.

2. She is from Colombia and she is an architect.

3. She is from Colombia and she are an architect.

4. She am from Colombia and she is an architect.

Grammar Check: To Be

Choose the sentence that correctly introduces a classmate:

1. She are from Colombia and she is a architect.

2. She is from Colombia and she is an architect.

3. She is from Colombia and she are an architect.

4. She am from Colombia and she is an architect.

Numbers and Phone Numbers

Ages and Dates

Say "I am 24 years old." For birthdays, combine month and day: "My birthday is on March 4th."

Phone Numbers

Pronounce phone numbers single digit by single digit: "It's 3-1-5, 4-5-6, 7-8-2-1." Never combine into hundreds.

Family and Possessives

When you present your classmate, speak clearly about their family members and belongings using possessive forms.

- His: "His name is Mateo. His father is an engineer."
- Her: "Her name is Valeria. Her mother is a doctor."
- Their: "Their family lives in Medellín."

Common Mistake

Do not say "Her father is Pedro" if your partner is male! Use His for men and Her for women.

Nationalities and Capital Letters

Capital Letters

In English, always capitalize countries and nationalities: Colombia, Colombian, Spanish.

Sentence Structures

Distinguish: "He is from Peru" (Country) vs. "He is Peruvian" (Nationality adjective).

Describing People & Likes

Add personal character and color to your oral introduction:

- Personality: "He is friendly and very kind."
- Appearance: "She is tall. Her jacket is dark blue."
- Likes: "He likes soccer and rock music, but he doesn't like cold coffee."

Notice the -s on the third person: He likes / She likes!

Oral Skills in Action

30-SECOND
SELF
INTRODUCTION

The image shows a man with a beard, wearing a blue suit, pointing upwards with his right hand. He is standing in front of a presentation slide. The slide has a dark blue background with the text "30-SECOND SELF INTRODUCTION" in white, bold, italicized font. To the right of the text are three icons: a meeting icon (three people at a table), a speaker icon (a person at a podium with an audience), and a circular flow icon (two people in a circle with arrows). The man is positioned in front of an orange rectangular area on the slide.

Model Oral Introduction

"Good evening everyone. My name is Juan. I am 22 years old and I am from Colombia. I am an IT student. Today, I am very happy to introduce my partner. Her name is Camila. She is 20 years old and lives in Cali. She is an energetic nurse. Her phone number is 312 984 5510. Camila likes pop music and tennis, but she doesn't like spicy food. Thank you for listening!"

Listening Check: Meet Ken

Listen to the audio and answer the questions

Alex Introduces Ken

 Play audio

1

Where is Ken from?

2

How old is Ken?

3

What is Ken's profession?

4

What sport does Ken like?

Listening Check: Meet Ken

Check your answers below

Alex Introduces Ken

 Play audio

1

Ken is from Japan.

2

Ken is 28 years old.

3

He is an English teacher.

4

Ken likes soccer.

Presentation Steps

1. Introduce You

Greet the audience, state your name, age, city, and profession in 1 minute.

2. Introduce Partner

Share their name, origin, job, family, phone number, and likes in 1 minute.

3. Q&A Defense

Answer two follow-up WH-questions asked by the teacher or classmates.

Oral Assessment Rubric

1. Content Scope

3 - Strong: Includes all required items (name, age, country, job, phone, family, likes).

2 - Developing: Missing 1 or 2 items.

1 - Needs Support: Only mentions 2 or 3 facts.

2. Grammar Accuracy

3 - Strong: Correct to be, possessives (his/her), and a/an throughout.

2 - Developing: Few minor slip-ups.

1 - Needs Support: Frequent structural errors.

3. Vocabulary & Sounds

3 - Strong: Clear pronunciation of digits, nationalities, and jobs.

2 - Developing: Clear with minor accent hesitation.

1 - Needs Support: Hard to understand digits/words.

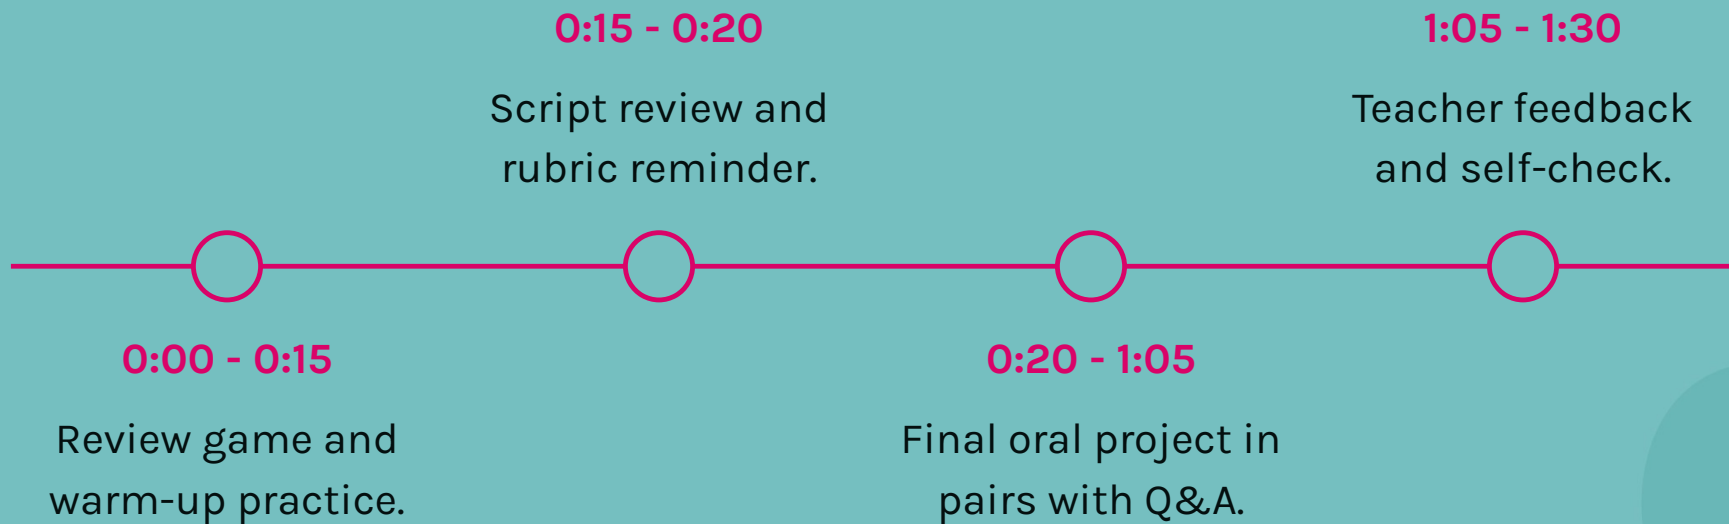

4. Fluency & Interaction

3 - Strong: Speaks smoothly; answers both follow-up questions easily.

2 - Developing: Brief pauses; answers with support.

1 - Needs Support: Needs constant prompting.

Class Presentation Schedule

Audience Listening Guide

While your classmates speak, active listening is essential! Complete your listener checklist by writing down:

- 1.The presenter's classmate name and country of origin.
- 1.Their profession or area of study.
- 1.One thing they like and one thing they dislike.

Prepare one friendly WH- follow-up question to ask them!

Final Oral Project

In pairs or small groups: 1) Introduce yourself (1 min) with your name, age, country, and job. 2) Introduce your classmate (1 min) with their name, family, phone number, and likes. 3) Answer two follow-up WH- questions from the teacher or your peers.

Teacher Feedback & Reflections

Individual Feedback

Your teacher highlights two key strengths and one specific area to polish in pronunciation or grammar.

Class Discussion

Which topics were the easiest to master?
Which structures required the most practice and focus?

Course Self-Assessment

Check your achievements:

- ✓ I can greet people and say goodbye in formal and informal situations.
- ✓ I can say who I am, where I am from, and how I feel with to be.
- ✓ I can ask and answer basic WH- questions and state phone numbers.
- ✓ I can talk about family members using possessive words (my, his, her).
- ✓ I can describe appearance and express likes and dislikes.

Course Celebration & Farewells

Congratulations on completing Introducing Yourself and Others! You are now prepared to communicate confidently in English.

Check Your Understanding

Share one key sentence you learned during this course, and say goodbye to your classmates using a formal or informal farewell expression.

Check Your Understanding

You might have said...

Example 1: I am from Colombia and I am an engineer. Have a wonderful evening!

Example 2: My partner likes music, but he doesn't like coffee. Take care, everyone!

Example 3: It was a pleasure meeting you all. Goodbye!